UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

-against-

JULIO OZUNA, et al.,

Defendants.

1:20-cr-00213 (MKV)

ORDER

MARY KAY VYSKOCIL, United States District Judge:

On November 1, 2021, Defendant Julio Ozuna was sentenced to a term of 200 months of imprisonment for his conviction, following a guilty plea, for attempted Hobbs Act robbery, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1951 and 2. The Defendant's sentencing guidelines range was 240 months of imprisonment based on an offense level of 43, a criminal history category of I, and a statutory maximum sentence of twenty years.

Effective November 1, 2023, in its Amendment 821, the United States Sentencing Commission ("Sentencing Commission") amended the United States Sentencing Guidelines Manual in two respects. Part A amends Guidelines § 4A1.1, by reducing from two (2) points to one (1) point the upward adjustment for offenders who committed the instant offense while under any criminal sentence, and by limiting this adjustment to defendants who received seven (7) or more criminal history points. Part B, in the part relevant here, amends Guidelines § 4C1.1, by providing a 2-level offense level reduction for offenders with zero (0) criminal history points who meet specified eligibility criteria. The Sentencing Commission made these amendments retroactive effective November 1, 2023. Defendants whose requests are granted could not have been released from prison before February 1, 2024.

On May 6, 2024, the Defendant filed a pro se motion requesting a sentence reduction pursuant to both (1) Amendment 821 to the Sentencing Guidelines Amendments, and (2) 18 U.S.C.

§ 3582(c)(2) (Compassionate Relief) [ECF No. 298]. Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that by June 14, 2024, the Government shall file a letter stating its position on Defendant's motion.

SO ORDERED.
